

RESUME – DAVE RAULSTON

EDUCATION: High School Diploma

Certified in Construction Safety (OSHA); Confined Space Entry; First Aid / CPR

WORK

HISTORY:

General Superintendent – Axis Reclamation & Construction Corp. – Ogden, UT

7/2011 – Present – Site supervision duties that included self-performing trades in demolition, saw-cutting, excavation, fences & gates, structural & slab concrete, masonry repairs, steel erection, rough & finish carpentry, waterproofing, installation of doors/frames/hardware, metal stud framing, drywall, flooring, painting, fire sprinklers and installation of all types of construction specialties.

Superintendent – ONYX Construction, LLC – West Jordan, UT – 4/2010 – 7/2011

Supervised construction projects and project closeout for projects ranging in value from $2,500,000 up to $6,500,000.

Field Superintendent – MESSCO, Inc. – Rock Springs, WY – 1/2009 – 4/2010

Managed and performed installation of gas & oil dehydration units and emission control devices for the oil and gas industry.

Superintendent – CK Construction Corporation – Ogden, UT – 2/2005 – 12/2008

Supervised construction projects ranging in value from $100 up to $3,800,000. Additional duties include corporate safety officer.

Superintendent – Grammoll Construction Company – SLC, UT – 1/1994 – 2/2005

Supervised construction projects ranging in value from $150,000 up to $3,500,000. Earlier duties included Assistant Superintendent and Crew Foreman.

Foreman – The Industrial Company – 2/1993 – 2/1994

Foreman – Harris and Western – 1/1992 – 2/1993